THE LIVER INVIGORATOR! PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD, COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,

Is one of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well, the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, and the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ, one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable. So it at last found, any person is complaint, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

To prove that this remedy is sufficient to relieve the stomach, and conviction is certain. These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and, WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents Nightmare.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the the bowels gently, and cures Costiveness.

One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia

One dose of two teaspoonsful will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One bottle taken for female obstruction remove the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure. Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventive of CHOLERA.

We take pleasure in recommending the medicine as a preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of Liver Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.

MORE THAN 500,000 BOTTLES SOLD IN THE NEW ENGLAND STATES IN ONE YEAR.

The Restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood for Restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival, volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

☞ The Hair.—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the tiniest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to.

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate, Philla.

Coshocton, Ohio. Nov. 17, 1856.

O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson,) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself, I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it; for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly.

PROF. O. J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: Having realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard, to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles.

Yours &c., JAMES FRANCIS.

HOME.

The fairest spot of all the earth,
Is home,
The one of all to which we turn,
Where'er we roam,
A pleasant home, a happy home,
There is no place so fair,
If those we love who smile for us,
But have their dwelling there.

The dearest word I ever learned
Is home,
The sweetest song, I ever heard
Is "Home, sweet Home."
There may we turn when cares are o'er,
When day draws to a close,
And find among the loved ones there
A season of repose. M. M. H.

Confession of a Monster.

The "down-east" papers contain the confession of Marshal Potter, who, on the night of Wednesday, April 6th, at Lee, Maine, murdered his aged mother and two brothers, and a boy, his nephew, and then set fire to the house.—The villian is a graduate of the State Prison, and has long been an object of general aversion and distrust. His object in committing these murders was to gratify a slight quarrel with his mother, eighty years old, who threatened to deny him with further admission to the house, in consequence of his bad conduct, and also to get possession of $200 which his brothers had by them, and $100 which his mother had received a few days previous; her pension as the widow of a revolutionary soldier. Of his own accord, the wretched man, Marshall Potter, made the following confession:—

"I am guilty. I came home about 10 o'clock Wednesday night; my mother was up; she told me it was a fine time of night to come home: one of my brothers told me I had been over to Mr. Hanscom's, and carried a bottle of liquor with me; I told him I had not been there; he told me I had; I told him that I did not want any more stuff from him, or something to that amount; he told me if I did not keep still I should go out doors; I told him I shouldn't go out; I went out into the other part of the house and got a shingle maul, (an instrument made of hard wood, twelve inches long and six in width and breadth, with a handle about a foot long in the end) with which I took the lives of them all; I went in and struck Alexander with the shingle maul; I hit him in the face and on the head and struck him a number of times.

"I then struck Oliver several times on the head and face, they neither of them struggled after I hit them. My mother came into the room and got hold of me; I swung round and struck her with the maul, and she fell; she did not struggle. The candle was setting on the woodbox by the side of the stove; I tipped it off the box into the box of shavings; the shavings took fire, and I did try to put the fire out; I then left the house and went out round it; I staid out round there till it got pretty well afire; then I went over to Mr. Hanscom's, called him up and told him that the house was burning up, and all there was in it; he got up, and he and I went over; when we got there the house was pretty much burned through.

"I killed Albert (his nephew, a boy ten years old); I killed them all; I think I didn't stike Albert on the head; I struck him on the side of the face with the maul; he didn't struggle then; I heard him make a noise afterwards; he was lying on the bed, but I don't know as he was asleep; I don't know how the shavings came in the box; they were there before; mother was up and sitting by the stove when I came in; my two brothers were in bed; we had some quarreling before, but nothing but words."

The examination of the mutilated and charred bodies confirms the account of the manner in which the murder was effected, even that of the boy whose jaw and face is horribly crushed The murdered is 43 years of age. He shows no particular sign of feeling, but seems rather indifferent than otherwise.

JUDICIAL FARCES.—A correspondent, who has evidently kept his eyes open and made use of his optics, sends us a communication concerning the escape of an alleged murderer in Philadelphia. The remarks of our correspondent will fit some other locklities we know of. He thus sketches the judicial farce sometimes enacted under the name of a trial for murder:

"For the fun of the thing, let us suppose the alleged murderer caught. "Vell! vot of it?" Of course, he will have a hearing before a magistrate, bail business discussed, and awful hard swearing, pro and con., generally. Prisoner is committed to stand a trial. Day arrives.—Quarter Sessions crowded. Counsel for defendant on hand and eager for the fray. Jury called. "Formed an opinion?" Yes! "Stand aside." Another and another—same question—same answer; till, after a long time, twelve intelligent, &c., are procured. When, all of a sudden, the discovery is made that an important witness is absent. "Can't go on, your Honor. Peter Jones is here—will swear that John Snooks, who knows everything, and more too, can't be found; expect to prove by him insanity in the family of the prisoner for a thousand years; will swear that the prisoner is as harmless as a kitten; was bit once, when a baby, on the shins, with a dough-nut, and been softheaded ever since." The trial is put off; comes on next six months; crazy dodge no go; convicted; great shame; innocent as a lamb; move for a new trial; argument heard; refused; sentenced; Governor pardons. And so ends the farce. Who would'nt "take a day's shooting?"

A STRANGE ADVERTISEMENT.—We find in the Zanesville Courier an advertisement of Solomon Sturges, one of the wealthy men of Ohio, in which he sets forth his reasons for offering for sale his vast landed property. He advertises the subject thus:—

"I have some eight or ten fine improved farms in Indiana, and one of 670 acres near Galena, in Illinois, that I wish to sell. I believe no man has a right to own more land than is necessary for his use, and that of his family. God has no doubt wisely ordained that land sharks should be cursed; and I can truly say that I am exceedingly anxious to sell all my lands, and get rid of the curse. I will therefore sell at low prices, and on easy terms of payment, any of my real estate; and I have a great deal more than I want, ought to have, or desire."

☞ A German couple were remarried in Detroit a few days since, after having been divorced from each other for three years. On his wedding night some villainous Iago planted the germ of jealousy within his breast, and he soon had no difficulty in convincing himself that he was an injured husband, and separation followed. After three years of single blessedness, he became convinced of the faithfulness of his former spouse, and he therefore went from his residence, in an eastern city, to Detroit, where they were again married, and went on their way rejoicing.

"THE BLACK LIST."

What an awful picture presents itself to the vision of the workman as his name, that good name, the name it may be of an honest man, is ordered to be written upon the "black list!" Hisses and groans await him, and visions of eternal infamy seems to glimmer before him, as the persecuting chalk scrawls out his hitherto fair initials. His tearful wife, too, trembling under doubt between starvation and honor, bids him go and yield to the committee and the union, and have their spotless names preserved from such a fearful list. Now, brother mechanic, let me say a word or two, as we go up to the judgement hall. I have joined in a "strike," in days long since past. We struck against bosses who were exceedingly kind to us; again men who sympathized with us in our sickness, and smiled upon us in our prosperity. We, too, were perfectly satisfied with our employers and our wages, and in fact, there was but one man who complained of anything in the whole establisment, and he was the laziest man, perhaps, that ever breathed, and strange as it may seem, was as peevish as he was lazy. He must have wondered at the generosity of his employers, in keeping him about the shops; but like all things earthly, his wonder had an end, for he was discharged, and with no other alternative but to "strike."

He struck for higher wages, and though despised by all, he started a little stream which burst every barrier, till the fountain itself was exhausted. We all struck, we knew not why, but we imagined we were in an age that demanded a revolution. We soon disliked to meet our employers, and we as soon imagined that they hated us, and only wished to crush us beneath their terrible tyranny. We formed a union, and displayed a magnificent "black list." We paraded the streets to very martial music; we drank, and smoked, and flourished, and our employers had to yield, yes, we "brot'em" to terms, and they were mighty glad to get us back. Glorious day! Magnificent victory!! What a grand success we mechanics had achieved!!! And yet strange to tell, in the short space of seven months, there were but sixteen of the "strikers" left in that town, and they of the sixteen all, with but one exception, had been emblazoned on the terrific "black list." Let me tell you, my friend, no man nor no set of men could frighten these strikers, now with a "black list." Nay, though they dared to write their names upon the blackest walls of the infernal pit, and send from thence the most hissing groans of damned spirits, they would die before they would yield their liberty and strike for what they did not desire

If your employers are regardless of your rights, strike off their bonds and starve before you will yield. But for humnity's sake, do not say "I was perfectly satisfied, and would like to be at work again, but the rest struck, and I was afraid to stand out."

If you have any rights to vindicate, let me urge it upon you to mantain them.

"But he alone is just."

THE LAUGH OF WOMAN.—A woman has no natural gift more bewitching than a sweet laugh. It is like the sweet sound of flutes on the water. It leaps from her heart in a clear, sparkling rill; and the heart that hears it, feels as if bathed in cool, exhiliarating spring. Have you ever pursued an unseen fugitive through trees, led on by fairy laugh, now here, now there, now lost, now found? We have—And we are pursuing that wondering voice to this day.—Sometimes it comes to us in the midst of care, or sorrow, or iksome business; and then we turn away and listen, and hear it ringing through the room like a silver bell, with power to scare away the ill spirits of the mind. How much we own to that sweet laugh! It turns the prose into poetry, flings showers of shunshine over the darksome wood in which we are traveling; it touches with light even our sleep, which is no more the image of death, but is cousumed with dreams that are the shadows of immortality.

SCENE IN A SANCTUM.—Enter a large strong man with a cowhide.

"Is the Editor in?"
"Yes."
"You?"
"Yes"
"I have come to settle with you."
"Well. (Editor draws a revolver.)—
"Go on."
"I have taken your paper a year."
"Well," (capping a pistol)
"An article in your last weeks issue, (editor cocks the pistol,) convinced me that you needed——"
"I deny your right to give it— therefore please be cautious sir."
"Give you what?"
"A thresing!"
"Why, no my dear sir, I came to pay you my subscription in advance!"
Of course no further disturbance was made.

TREASURE FROM A WRECK.—At the offices of Messrs. Abell and Langley, bullion brokers, London, there are now to be seen, gold bars of the value of £11,000, and silver bars valued at £4000, finished up from the wreck of the British ship Lutine, which was lost off the coast of Holland, on the 9th of October, 1709. After sixty years immersion, the gold looks as fresh as if it had just been taken out of the bank. The silver bars, on the other hand, have become almost black under the action of salt water; and some of the dollars, which have been almost all saved, are so much corroded that they are worth only one to two shillings each.

A SAD MISTAKE.—A man living near Nashville, who had been absent in California some three years, on coming home recently, found a babe only three months old lying in the cradle. With a cruelty utterly diabolical, he at once cut off the infant's ears to avenge his "wounded honor." The screams of the little sufferer called in the family, when the infuriated man learned that the child belonged to a neighbor who was visiting his wife. He had to flee to escape a lynching.

Slavery Mob in Texas.

The action of a body of slave-holders at Timber Creek, Fannin county, Texas, during the holding of a Conference at that place, at which Bishop JANES presided, has revived the slavery question in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and excited to a high degree the feelings of those of its Ministers and members who are opposed to the cause of slavery. When we first read the account of the doings of the mob, we thought it might be somewhat exaggerated, but recent information leaves no doubt as to its truth, if in reality, a fair account of the proceedings can be conveyed in a written statement. An exchange in referring to the affair says that the Conference was composed, as is uniformly the case, of the regularly ordained itinerant ministers laboring within a given region, their only object being to preach the Gospel. But these ministers belonged not to the M. E. Church, South but to the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the slave holders of Fannin county resolved that their presence should not be tolerated.—They therefore appointed a vigilance committee of fifty to wait upon them and warn them not to prosecute further the business of their Conference, and to order their departure from the county on pain of having lynch law applied to them. The following appears to be a fair statement of the way in which these gentlemen performed their mission: On the Sabbath, the great day of the Conference, Bishop JANES was in the pulpit, and the introductory services were in progress, when, from the windows of the church, far away on the level plain, might be seen some horsemen approaching. The house was about two-thirds full, when they knelt in prayer; on arising, the horsemen had arrived, tied their horses, and crowded into every open place in the house. As the Bishop arose to announce his text, the leader of the mob, about three feet from the Bishop before him, exclaimed, "I have some business, sir, rather unpleasant to me, and more so to you; we have resolved in public meeting that you shall not preach or hold meetings in these regions." The Bishop replied that it was not his place to decline to preach; it was for the society living there and owning the house to decide whether it could be occupied that morning according to appointment, and unless the trustees or proper authorities forbade him, he must preach. The leader of the mob replied threateningly, declaring that in all that region Methodist societies should no longer be tolerated. The firmness of Bishop JANES enabled him to finish his sermon. The Conference, we understand resolved to disperse rather than provoke such a breach of the peace. We regret that the New Orleans Christian Advocate approves of this gross outrage upon a body of Christian ministers, and of its own denomination to! Whom the Gods wish to destroy they first make mad! Slavery is working its own cure!

FEARFUL MORTALITY.—In a boarding school for boys located in the village of Orange, New Haven county, Connecticut, some few weeks since, a malignant disease made its appearance, which has since passed like a simoon over the whole town, like the plague of Egypt, carrying off whole families, and almost depopulating the village. It commences with a swelling in the throat, and so quickly and suddenly does it work, that the victim expires in a few hours from the time of its first appearance.

OPPOSITE DECISIONS.—A short time since, Postmaster General Brown decided that a pencil or pen mark on a paper intended to call attention to any article, subjected it to letter postage. Assistant Postmaster General King has decided that marking a paper with pen or pencil, for the purpose of attracting attention, does not subject it to letter postage. By which decision are we to be governed?

Ten Steamboats Burned at Pittsburgh.

From the Pittsburgh Dispatch of Monday we learn that at noon on Saturday last, a fire broke out on the wharf between Market and Smithfield streets, in that city, and in the short space of an hour and ten minutes ten steamboats fell a prey to the devouring element, the loss of which is estimated at $110,000, $79,000 of which was covered by insurance. The boats burned were named, Belmont, Cremona, Commerce, Potomac, Panola, Jennie Grey, Henry Graff, Council Bluff, James Wood, J. H. Conn. The rapidity with which the flames spread rendered it impossible for the crews of the burning steamer to save anything on board, some not even having an opportunity to save their wardrobes. Some of the warehouses along the wharf were on fire at different times, but the flames were promptly checked by the fire department, although considerable damage was done by water. A quantity of freight was thrown overboard from the burning steamers and floated down the river. The scene on the wharf during the fire is said to have been disagreeably animated.

DEATH OF MR. CHURCH.—We regret to learn that Joseph M. Church, Esq., member of the late Legislature from Philadelphia, died in New York city a few days since, of congestion of the lungs. Mr. Church was highly esteemed and the announcement of his sudden death will cause universal regret. The Inquirer says that for many years he was connected with the press as a writer of no ordinary industry. In 1838 he was connected with several of the weekly journals and subsequently came to that city, after having taken some part in the "Dorr war," in Rhode Island. Mr. Church is the third gentleman elected to the late Legislature who has died. The first was his colleague, Mr. Wood, of Philadelphia, and the second Mr. Balliett of Carbon.

FINING A JUROR.—The Pottstown Ledger says that a Mr. Samuel R. Ellis, of that place, was summoned as a Juror in the U. S. Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and was fined $50 by Judge Cadwalader for having expressed an opinion after having been empanneled as a juror. The case in trial was that of Judge Vondersmith, of Lancaster county, for committing pension frauds. Mr. Ellis asked to be excused from serving as a juror on the case, as he had expressed an opinion. The Judge asked how long since he had expressed the opinion, when he replied about a week ago, and since he had been put on the present panel of jurors. The Judge directed the clerk to mark the juror excused, and also to mark him fined $50 for expressing his opinion publicly about a case which he was empanneled to try.

CONTRACTS FALLING DUE ON SUNDAY.—The Superior Court of New York has given a decision of importance upon this subject. The particular case was that of a policy of life insurance expiring on Sunday, the premium upon the renewal of which was not tendered till the following Monday. The Court decided that when, from accident, or mutual error, the day of fulfilling an agreement falls on Sunday, there is enough of principle and authority to justify the party in deferring his performance to the Monday ensuing, without impairing a right or incurring a forfeiture.

THE WHEAT CROP IN OHIO.—The prospects of the wheat crop throughout Central and Eastern Ohio, were never, it is said, more promising than they are at this time. The Wheeling Intelligencer has been informed by Mr. Garrett, President of the Baltimore and Ohio road, that the people everywhere he has been are jubilant with the expectation of an abundant harvest.

A STRANGE CONCEIT.—The insane often entertain the most ludicrous ideas of their own condition. There is a man in an asylum in one of the neighboring states who became insane in consequence of a failure in business. He explains the reason of his incarceration as follows: "I am here because of a mere mistake in business. I was engaged during the winter in making mosquitoes' wings, which I expected to sell in the summer. I had ten thousand of them on hand when the season opened, but unfortunately I had forgotten to make them in pairs. They were all left-hand wings, and consequently I lost the sale of them and was compelled to suspend payment!" He relates this story with a gravity and earnestness which testifies to his sincerity of his own belief in the explanation.

☞ Better than the Sickles Plan.—A merchant in Bucyrus, Ohio, having detected his wife in intrigue with one whom he had regarded as his friend, cut off the seducer's ear, forgave his wife for the sake of his young child, and returning home, preserved the ear in spirits, and saved his family from disgrace.

☞ "Up and at Him Again!"—John Secreiter, the late antagonist of Michael Phelan in the billiard match at Detroit, has challenged the latter to play a new match for $5,000, within ninety days. A forfeit of $1,000 has been forwarded from Detroit to this city, and it is proposed that the match be played here.

☞ On a Visit.—The Tyrone Star says the Tribune arrived at that place on Friday morning last, in the train from Philadelphia. Seeing the editors are always so busy that they can not go visiting, we suppose our papers thought they would run down and see how our friends in the Quaker city were getting along, and let them know we are still about.

☞ Handling Notes.—Peterson's Detector warns persons who are compelled to handle bank notes, not to wet their thumbs while counting bank notes. It remarks that if the thumb comes in contact with the tongue after handling a note from the pocket of a man infected with small pox, the infection is as sure to take affect as the inoculation of a child.

☞ A singular occurrence, says the Knickerbocker, of the 27th, was discovered in a vault attached to one of our burial grounds on Sunday last. It was that of a female, who was deposited therein for dead some two months since, being found, on opening the coffin, to be lying on her side with one hand under her head.—From this it was evident that the woman was alive when placed there, and awaking from the trance into which she had fallen, endeavored to extricate herself from her entombment. This, of course was an impossibility; the cover was not only screwed down tightly, but the space was too contracted to allow of even an effort.—It was evident, however, that the unfortunate woman became convinced of this fact, and concluded to die. She therefore took the easy posture in which she was found, and breathed her last. The thought that they had buried her while yet alive set her friends almost crazed. The body was that of a woman who formerly resided in the Bowary. The father and mother of the deceased had just arrived from the old country last week, and were brought to the vault to see their child. The scene is related as heart-rending. This is another instance of too hasty burial.

LAW IN NORTH CAROLINA.—A man named Elias Newville has been convicted, in Halifax county, N. C., of the murder of a man named Phillip's, and sentenced to be hung. A correspondent of the Petersburg Express says: That the conviction of Newville was the result of the cruel hardship of the law, as our Supreme Court has laid it down, all admit. That he ought to be pardoned, if a new trial is not granted him, all concede. He is a poor man with a large family. He killed one because he had made a base proposal to his wife, and when she rejected it, seized her with great violence, (she far gone in pregnancy,) threw her down, and endeavored by force to accomplish his object!—For killing such a brutal and brutish ruffian, Newville is guilty of murder. Sickles killed Key for adulterous intercourse with his wife—that wife being willing and consenting to the act, yet he is guilty of no crime, and the verdict of his acquittal is received with shouts of applause, and a burst of enthusiastic approval. But what of all that? The one is a poor, humble man—the other, a member of Congress!

A CURE FOR SHEEP-KILLING DOGS.—An agricultural writer gives the following recipe to cure vicious dogs from killing sheep, which may be of some importance to our wool-growing readers. The writer says: Select the stoutest and most vicious old ram in your flock, and shear him close; then get a small Manilla rope thirty-five feet long, tie one end around the ram's neck and the other end around the dog's neck, and turn them into a ten-acre field well cleared of stumps, and let them remain two hours; and if that old ram don't knock all the sheep-killing propensities out of that dog, why then, as Samuel Stonestreet would say, "I hope I may never see chinkapin time again." That dog will never have the courage to look a sheep in the face again. This may be an excellent way of effecting the object, but for our part we think it might be accomplished with far greater safety and expedition through the agency of three cents worth of strichnine administered to the canine in his food.

KISSING.—The editor of the Memphis Enquirer says that a man should never attempt to kiss a lady's hand without knowing whether it would be agreeable to her. Upon this Prentice remarks: But pray how is he to ascertain whether it would be agreeable or not? Must he, as a preliminary, or rather as a feeler, squeeze her hand a little to see how she likes that? or should he make a direct and formal proposition to her; my dear creature, please let me kiss your hand? or should he gaze steadfastly into her eyes until he sees, written distinctly upon the retina, "please kiss me, sir? or until she presents him with the little flower "jump up and kiss me?"

GREAT WALKING MATCH—THE PEDESTRIAN BEATEN.—On Monday last, on the Union Course, Long Island, the walking match by Mr. Addams against time for $200, the pedestrian to walk four miles in thirty minutes, a fair heel and toe walk, took place. The day was fine, and the attendance was large. From the start Addams walked his best, making the first mile in 7 minutes and 28 seconds; the first two miles in 15 minutes and 35 seconds, and the four miles in 31 minutes and 44 seconds, losing the match by 1 minute and 44 seconds. Previous to starting, betting was lively, Addams having the call at $100 to $80.

KILLED BY A WOLF.—The Tuscola (C. W.) Pioneer relates that a man a few days since, while chopping in the woods some miles west of Lexington, Lenilac county, near his own house was attacked by a wolf, which at the first signal grasped his victim by the throat. The wife standing at the door of the house, saw the position of her husband, and running up, seized his axe, and with one blow on the back of the wolf so disabled him as to make him release his hold. A few more blows finished him entirely, but not until the wolf had succeeded in cutting the throat of her husband so that he died almost immediately.

FRENCH FLOUR.—Several samples of French wheat and flour were lately exhibited in Baltimore. There were three grades of flour made at Nantz, Paris, and Abbeville, which were examined by millers, and pronounced superior to best city flour The samples of wheat were red from Layon and Nantz, and white Belgium from Antwerp. The flour, it is said, will pay a duty of fifteen per cent., and can then be sold for a less price than that made by the mills of Baltimore. To import flour is a novelty, when the United States for years furnished bread for a large part of western Europe.

THE SUICIDE "DODGE."—A man, calling himself Lamartine, is wandering through the West and raising funds, by pretending to commit suicide. He takes laudanum and sends for a doctor and clergyman. They come to him and find a letter in his room in the most pathetic style of suicide literature. He states that his poverty is the cause of the rash act. He is restored with difficulty, and sympathetic people raise a purse for him, and he departs. He raised $25 in this way last week at Dayton and $40 at Sandusky, and departed with a "free pass" on the railroad, to commit suicide at some other place.

☞ In Paris a large number of girls, selected for their beauty of form and face, are hired by the dry goods dealers to show off goods. It was formerly the custom to use a wax figure, or dummy of some sort, whereon the shawl or dress might be seen to advantage. But the beauty of a live figure was found to be so certain an addition to the apparent value of the dress—each lady customer, of course, fancying it would look quite as handsome upon herself—that the venders have universally adopted the expedient.

☞ It is stated by the New York Times that the fight between Heenan and Sayers, for a purse and the English belt, will not take place before next spring. During the interval, it is expected that Heenan will practice constantly with John Morrissey and Mr. Ottignon. Since the sparring exhibition for the benefit of the widow of Harrington, Morrissey and Heenan have become warm friends. If the arrangements for a fight with Sayers are completed, Morrissey intends going to England with Heenan, and to second him in the ring.

THE FATAL DAY NEAR AT HAND.—The time for the execution of Jacobi and Evans, wife murderers is drawing near. On the 20th of May, these unfortunate men will be called upon to expiate the penalty of their atrocious and inhuman conduct on the gallows. They are preparing to meet their maker, being constantly attended by Ministers, and devoting a great deal of their time to exercises of a devotional character. They will be executed in the Jail yard at Pittsburgh.

DANGEROUS PREACHER.—Dr. Cross, in a letter to the Richmond Advocate, dagurreotypes a southern preacher, in part, thus: "He encompasses himself with rainbows, and meteors, and earthquakes, and cataracts, and hurricanes, and water-spouts, and showers of gems, and torrents of fire, and boundless conflagrations, and marshaled philosophies, and trooping seraphim, and the stupendous wheels of Providence, and the silver chiming of the spheres, and the weltering chaos of demolished worlds."

YOUTHFUL VILLAINS.—A shocking case of depravity is that of two young men named Ariel French and Henry W. Moran, who are in jail at Syracuse, New York. They had put obstructions on a railroad track and hid behind a tree near by, with a view of plunder, which the disaster would give them a chance for. Luckily a hand car came along, and the danger was removed. Hanging is too good for the scamps, by half.

LONG PASTORATE.—The Presbyterian Magazine says: "In the Presbyterian Church we know of no pastorate of longer duration than that of Dr. Spring, which is nearly half a century." We know of one which is probably still nearer to the half century. Rev. James Linn, D. D., was ordained and installed in Bellfonte, Pa., in the Autum of 1809; and he had been preaching there some months previously. He still serves the same congregation and with great acceptance.

☞ We have received a copy of the Milton Democrat, a new paper published by R. B. Hall, formerly of Milesburg, Centre county, Pa. The proclivities of the paper, like the cut at the head of it, is decidedly one-sided on the Lecompton question, supporting the Buchanan dynasty. To make the paper neat and acceptable, the position of the cut in the head and the position of the editor on the Lecompton question must be changed.

☞ The artesian well in Kentucky discharges 230 gallons of water per minute, or about 330,000 gallons in twenty-four hours. The water flies with such force that it rises in pipes, by its own pressure, 170 feet above the surface. Its force is estimated to be equal to that of a steam engine of ten-horse power. The water is perfectly limpid, with an invarible temperature of 76½ degrees.

☞ The editor of the New England Farmer says that charcoal placed around the roots of the diseased peach stock is serviceable. He removed the soil from around the trunk of a sickly tree in his garden, suppled its place with charcoal, and was surprised at its sudden renovation and subsequent rapidity of growth, the tenacity with which the fruit held on to the branches and the unusual richness of its flavor when matured.

☞ The Western and Worcester Railroad Companies have placed upon their lines between Albany and Brighton a novelty in the shape of a drover's car, fitted up at one end with sleeping berths, and at the other with tables for reading, and proper ventilation for smoking purposes. In this car the drover can accompany his cattle, and is thus on hand in any emergency that may occur.

☞ We learn that the publishers of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary have in press a new edition of that work, with fifteen hundred pictorial illustrations; several thousand new words added to the vocabulary, a table of synonyms by Prof. Goodrich, and other new features. It is to appear, we understand, at an early day, and will be looked for with much interest.

☞ A Great Earthquake occurred at Ecuador, South America, on the 22d of March, which shook the mountain range of Chemborazo, for the space of four minutes, almost destroying the City of Quito, and killing from 5000 to 12000 persons. All the principal buildings of the neighboring towns were also almost utterly destroyed.

BISHOP JANES A FREE MASON.—According to one of the Western Methodist papers, Bishop Janes, during the recent noisy Conference in Texas, had, in the hour of extremity, given the Masonic sign, when the rabble dispersed, and the Conference was permitted to close its session.

LOCAL ITEMS.

STABBING AFFRAY.—On Sunday evening last, a stabbing affray occurred at the house of William Black, tanner, about four miles below this place, which, although it has not and likely will not, prove fatal to the party who received the wound, the intention of the assailant no doubt was that it should. It appears that two young men, named Johnston Ecker and Levi Young, were sitting in a room in Mr. Black's house, in which there was no light, in company with two of his daughters. This excited the indignation of a young man named George Smith, a German, who lived with Mr. Black, who imagined that the young men were trespassing upon his ground, and acting upon the spur of the moment, walked into the room and lit the candle. One of the young ladies requested him not to do so, but he persisted, whereupon she attempted to put it out. The wrath of Smith being thus more excited, he caught the lady by the hair and threw her on the floor, putting out the light at the same time. Ecker came to her assistance, and an altercation between he and Smith ensued, in which Smith drew a knife and stabbed Ecker in the region of the abdomen, on the left side. Fortunately, the blade of the knife partly closed, on coming in contact with Ecker's ribs, causing it to take a downward course, and thus, probably, saving his life. Mr. Black, who was sitting in a room below, hearing the noise of the scuffle, came up stairs and found Smith standing at the head of the stairs with an axe in his hand, which he had previously placed there. On asking him what he had been doing, he replied that he had killed a man in there, and drawing the axe in a menacing manner, warned Black to keep away. Black backed away from him, after which Smith went down stairs and then fled to the house of Mr. Orr, about a quarter of a mile distant, where he burst open the door, went in and endeavored to conceal himself behind a bed. He was followed shortly after and arrested and brought to this place and confined in the "Lock Up" for the night. On Monday morning he had a hearing before Esquire Cherry, who committed him to jail to stand his trial for assault and battery with intent to kill, at the next term of Court.

INSURE YOUR PROPERTY.—In a town like this, we think that every man or woman who owns a house should have it insured, and those who are engaged in business, who have any amount of stock on hand, should not fail to secure themselves against the entire loss of the same by fire. We have in this place, three accommodating and gentlemanly agents acting for three of as good companies as there are in the State, viz:—John Shoemaker, Agent of the Lycoming Co., R. A. O. Kerr, agent of the West Branch, Fire, Live stock and Health Insurance Company, and D. T. Caldwell, agent of Blair County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, either of whom will take pleasure in obtaining policies at any time. Of the responsibility of the Blair and Lycoming Companies, all here, we presume, are well aware. The West Branch Company is highly recommended by many influential men, among whom are Gov. Packer, who is well acquainted with the gentlemen by whom it was established. In addition to insuring against loss by fire, the latter company insures live stock, such as Horses and Cattle. Every man who has stock of this kind should have it insured. The price is reasonable. The same company also insures health, at such rates as to make it to the interest of every man to take a policy. For further particulars in reference to the yearly payments to be made, and the amount received per week when sick, we refer all to the advertisement in another column, and to the agent of the Company.

THE BATTALION.—As might have been expected, Tuesday was a damp, drizly, rainy, pourry day, consequently the assembled patriotism of "Little Blair" did not show off to good advantage. Some ten companies were on the ground, and the display, had the day been in any way favorable, would have been very fine; as it was, however, the only patriotism and self-sacrificing devotion manifested was that of standing out in a drenching rain for the space of an hour and a half, during inspection, which was necessarily cut short. We understand that it was arranged to hold another inspection, in Hollidaysburg, some time in July. If patriotism did not manifest itself on account of the rain, we are sure that lager beer made up the deficiency, as we noticed a number of individuals who could not tell whether it was the nation day or the Fourth of July. Lager is a great boy, and does more in the way of getting up the spirits on a rainy day than any other thing, excepting perhaps, King Alcohol, whom it is rapidly superceding.

NOT REMOVED.—Having been somewhat crowded with work since our removal, we have not had time to remove our sign from the office previously occupied, consequently a number of persons from a distance, looking for us, have been misled in upon our excellent merchant tailor, Snyder, who is prepared with clothes, casimers and vestings and everything in his line to rig a man out in full suit, of the very best or plainest material, which he will make up in the most fashionable style, on short notice. With his permission, the sign may remain a day or two longer, should he have no fears that it will frighten good customers away. So long as it remains the tax gatherer will not call, as he knows better than to expect to collect tax from printers.

GOD'S AFFECT HIM.—The publishing of the peaceable edict proclaimed by the G. N. C. R. S. to G. N. C. of R. S. B., against our young friend, Dr. Roush, does not appear to have affected him in the least, as he has just returned from Philadelphia with a fresh supply of drugs, dyestuffs, paints, dye stuffs, and as fine an assortment of perfumery for the toilet as was ever brought to Altoona. Those in want of anything in the perfumery line, (and what young man or woman does not,) should call at Roush's. Beside the articles enumerated, he has a little of everything usually kept in such stores in the country. Just call and see.

RAIL ROAD VIEW.—Our old friend, Billy Marriott, well known to all whose business calls them into the vicinity of the Depot, has taken the house heretofore kept by Jas. McIntosh, on the East side of the Railroad (in what was formerly Greensburg) to which he has given the above name, which he has fitted up in a handsome manner by adding thereto a neat building and making all necessary improvements, preparatory to opening it as a house of entertainment, which he did formally, on Monday last, by giving his friends a free "blow." Whatever Billy puts his hands to appears to turn into money; whether on account of good management, or good luck, we can not say, but one thing we do know, and that is, there is not a more clever Englishman this side of the Herron-pond than Billy; and we predict that he will keep a house of unexceptionable character, at which a good meal and good accommodations may at all times be had. Hurrah for Billy and Rail Road View.

STOKES' LECTURE.—We neglected, last week, to notice the able lecture of Gen. Will A. Stokes, delivered under the auspices of the A. M. L. & R. R. A., in the Lutheran Church, on the evening of the 28th ult. The audience was much larger than we had anticipated, the spacious church being well filled. Of the merits of the lecture it is scarcely necessary for us to speak, as all who heard it pronounced it excellent, abounding as it did in cutting sarcasms upon the character and letters of would-be-English Tourists in America, commencing with the discovery of this country and coming down to the present day, delineating in a humorous style their monstrous falsehoods and entire ignorance of our county and people. His disquisition on the difference between the judiciary of this country and England was very interesting, and exhibited much thought and research. His effort fully sustained his high character as a lecturer.

ENLARGING.—The large number of students in attendance at the Iron City College has made it necessary for the managers of that popular institution to open seperate rooms for the several departments of the College One Hall, capable of seating two hundred and fifty students, is now appropriated exclusively to those engaged in book-keeping; another, with a capacity for one hundred and fifty, is devoted to the writing department; a third, with accommodations for two hundred, is occupied by those engaged in mathematical studies, while the fourth, used as a lecture room, is occupied from four to six hours each day, by some of the Professor with their classes. The present capabilities of the College are ample for the accommodation of six hundred students; but should its patronage increase for the year to come, as it has during the past, the College rooms will be far too limited for those seeking admission.

MORE SHAD-OH!—Scarcely had the fine shad left in our office, by our young friend across the street, gone the way of all shad presented to printers, ere the elegant proportions of another of our friends darkened the shadow of our door and deposited before us four more shad-ohs! fresh from their native element. Oh! they were a sight for eyes long used to feasting upon flitch and molasses for breakfast, molasses and flitch for dinner, and what was left from the two meals served up for supper. The shadows of these shad-ohs! did not long remain to look upon, but disappeared as the sun behind an April cloud. May the shadow of our young friend prove ever as beautiful to the eyes of his friends as the shad-ohs! he presented did to ours.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP—Three Children Cured of Whooping Cough.—Three of my children were very bad with whooping cough, for which we tried several remedies for it without relief. The first few doses of Pectoral Syrup gave relief, and cured the urgent symptoms.—I used but one bottle, which cured them so far as to relieve the whooping cough entirely.

ANOTHER CURE OF MYSELF.

I took the Pectoral at the same time for a cough, two doses of which cured me entirely.—This is all the result of one bottle.

JOHN GRANEN, Seventh Ward.

THE CIRCUS.—Of course, everybody who feels interested in the advent of such entertainments, has seen the big pictures and read of the one to come off in this place on Tuesday next. That it will draw a fair audience in the evening, may naturally be presumed, although it is not likely that anything new or novel will be presented, other than what has been repeated time and again by this and other companies. Money will be spent for tickets to this exhibition which, rightfully, should be handed to some of our mechanics or merchants, to whom it is due, and who need it as much as the proprietors of the Circus.

I AND J.—There are no two letters in the manuscript alphabet of the English language, which occasion so much trouble or cause so much misconstruction as the two letters, I and J, as many persons inadvertently write them.—The rule for writing them properly, and which should be universally understood and adopted, is to extend the J. below the line, while the I should be written even with the line. If those who write I for J knew how it sometimes puzzles printers, they should remember the above suggestions.

THE EXCITEMENT.—The excitement occasioned by the domestic difficulty, in the lower end of town, on Saturday evening week, was not the only one which the people of that locality were destined to witness this spring. The late arrival of new goods at McCormick's store has created a considerable "furor" in the same vicinity, as the crowds daily wending their way to his store, to select from his large and handsome assortment of goods, will fully attest. Some rare bargains may be missed by not calling early.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The contract for Macadamising Virginia street, was, on the evening of the 3d inst., awarded by the Town Council to Mr. T. J. Williams, at his bid, 80 cts. per cubic yard. We understand that he intends to commence the work immediately.

IMPROVED SKIRT SUSPENDERS.—At the Model Store may be found an assortment of Dr. Cutter's Improved Skirt Suspenders, an article of great utility which should be worn by every female. These suspenders take the weight of the skirt upon the shoulders, the proper place, and relieve the stomach and abdomen of that confinement and downward pressure, which is by many of the most able physician, said to be the greatest cause of so much female weakness and premature death. All ladies who have once worn them would not be without them. Call and get a pair.

CONFECTIONARIES AT WHOLESALE PRICES.—Our young friend, Geo. M. Smith, proprietor of the Confectionary store, two doors above the Post Office, is prepared to furnish confectionaries at Wholesale prices. Persons in this place who wish to buy anything in his line will find, on giving him a call, that he sells at the same price asked for them in other places, thereby saving the freight. Any quantity furnished on shortest notice.

EARLY EVENING SERVICE.—Services in the Methodist Church, in this place, will commence at 6 o'clock instead of half-past 7 as heretofore. We think this arrangement will meet with the approval of the members of the church as well as all others.

☞ If the person is WISE that took a pair of fancy cloth slippers from the window of a Shoe Store in this place, she will call and seettle for them and save exposure, as she is well known.

☞ See advertisement of Dr. Sandford's LIVER INVIGORATOR in another column.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.

In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates—now to allay inflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Sprains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Biles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salve is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to its opposite disorder.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

In its effects is magical, because the time is so short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Sold by G. W. Kessler, Altoona; George A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg; and by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canadas.

ALL ABOUT SHOES!

Gentlemen are Requested not to Read this

We do not boast of Auction Shoes
At shillings six a pair,
For sure no lady would them choose
That wants a shoe to wear.

Now very much we feel incln'd
Such Gaiters to expose,
They are not good, and you will find
Them bursting round the toes.

Such fil-made Shoes you could not wear
We often with them meet;
Just made to sell, they rip and tear
When walking in the street.

A lady passing by one day
Was caused a deal of trouble,
Superbly dress'd in garments gay
And Shoes not worth a bubble.

New pair of Shoes, and good ones too,
As the dear lady thought,
Until her feet protruding though
Proclaimed them good for naught.

We pay the prices for our work
To have it honest made,
To worthy men who are in truth
The masters of their trade.

And we can boast of extra nice
Of beautiful and neat,
Of fairy Shoes at fairest price
To decorate the feet.

BOERHAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,

DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND
FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave: Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful remedy has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

☞ Sold at $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, by the SOLE PROPRIETORS,

EXTRAORDINARY SALE OF JEWELRY, with a Premium to each purchaser worth from Two Dollars to Two Hundred!

This is no Lottery, but a fair and legitimate sale, in which each purchaser gets the value of his or her money in a Gold Pencil with Gold Pen attached, or a Gold Locket, worth $5; and in addition to the purchase, each person receives a Premium of jewelry, not less in value than $2, and it may be worth $3, 5, 8, 10, 15, 20, 30, 50, or even $200!

Our Premiums are distributed in a fair and honorable manner, and as soon as the name of the purchaser is received with the $5, his Pencil and Pen and Premium, or Gold Locket and Premium, are put up in a small box, in a safe manner, and sent to the owner by Mail, Free of Postage. Our plan, from long experience in the above business, has given general satisfaction, as each purchaser can Sell or Trade the above articles for all they cost him, and retain the Premium Gratis.

We want a good Agent in every part of the country to solicit purchasers; and Agents, to be successful, should first have a Pencil and Pen and Premium, or Locket and Premium, or both, to exhibit; and the first person becoming a Purchaser at any place will receive the Agency for that neighborhood.

NO MONEY RISKED!

We propose to let a person know what Premium he will receive before sending his money. Any Lady or Gentleman desiring one of the above articles, can first send us their name and address, stating whether they want the Pencil and Pen, or Locket, and we will make their selection, and inform them by return Mail what Premium they are entitled to. They can then have the privilege of sending for it if they choose. We cannot, however, give this privilege but once to any person; and we make this offer to establish the quality of our goods in a neighborhood. After a person becomes a purchaser, and accepts the Agency, we require all persons in that locality to send their $5 in advance through him.

And if any one is dissatisfied with their purchase, and an unbiassed person competent to judge says the articles are not worth more than the money paid for them, and in some cases Ten, or even Forty times the amount, let such person return the goods, and we will freely refund the money.

Among our Premiums are articles suitable for Ladies and Gentlemen, such as

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDI-CAL SALT. For Inflammatory Diseases only.

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT, instead of being a remedy for all ills, has but one aim, and accomplishes but one thing, to wit: Subdues inflammatory disease, whatever be its form or locality. This it does by equalizing the circulation, thereby removing the sole cause of inflamation.

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, Headache, Fits, Colds, Fevers, Inflamed Throat, Lungs, and Liver, Female Diseases Erysipelas, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Asthma, Dyspepsia, Venereal Diseases, Gout, Scrofula, Canker and all other forms of Inflamation are easily subdued by the New Medical Salt.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT, is no CURE-ALL, but does just what it claims to do—no more, no less—equalizes the circulation by removing from the system all arterial and venous obstructions.

MULTITUDES HAVE TRIED the virtues of the New Medical Salt, though but lately discovered and introduced. Witness the testimonials and certificates of cure.

ALL WHO HAVE USED IT acknowledge a benefit from it.—An acquaintance of ours was cured of a severe case of Neuralgia in less than a week.

YOUR INVALUABLE MEDICINE is nobly fulfilling, in my case, all the promises which you made for it. A few doses also relieved my mother of a rush of blood to the head.
J. P. GILLINGHAM, Phila.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM was my complaint. The first package did the work effectually, as not a vestige of Rheumatism is left.   G. H. DUNCAN, New York.

I KNOW IT IS GOOD for Rheumatism, removing it in a few hours. I am now trying it for Scrofula and have already received benefit.   S. LESSIG, Reading.

I TRIED IT FOR ANEURISM of the Abdominal Aorta. In ten days the pain was gone.
T. W. FITZIMONS, M. D., Phila.

WE SPEAK BY THE BOOK. We have tried it. It has complete control over inflamation.

BRONCHITIS, CANKER, Rheumatism, and Neuralgia have been cured by it.

MANY MORE WOULD TESTIFY, if necessary. Descriptive Circulars, with testimonials may be obtained from any Druggists who has this valuable medicine for sale.

DR. COGGSWELL'S Antiphlogistic salt. Price, One Dollar. Chronic Package, $2.50.
D. C. TAYLOR, & CO.,
Gen. Agents, 202 Dock St. Phila.

THE NEW MEDICAL SALT IS FOR SALE in Altoona, by A. Roush; Geo. A. Jacobs, Hollidaysburg, and by all enterprising druggists wherever the "Tribune" is read. As it is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of an eminent physician, no one should fail to try the Medical Salt. For testimonials and directions, see circular.

SUFFERING HUMANITY, READ THIS.—The undersigned takes this method of informing the public generally that there is no medicine now offered to the public that is equal to DU VALL'S GALVANIC OIL in relieving suffering humanity.

I was an observer of its effects on a friend of mine, who suffered almost everything from a neuralgic affection which resisted the best medical treatment in Centre county. We applied freely the Galvanic Oil to the painful part, and gave some inwardly, and in 20 minutes the patient was asleep, and when awakened was free from pain and continued so. This is a positive fact which I am willing to make good at any time. A case of Felon was cured in nearly the same length of time.   J. H. HAHN.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHIL-ADELPHIA. A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual Diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a charitable act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty and suffering, to furnish medicine free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the Consulting Surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or Self-abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important and much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or Self-abuse, and other abuses of the sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), FREE OF CHARGE, on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment of sexual diseases, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.

Address, for Report or Treatment, Dr. GEORGE R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors, GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOK-ING STOVES. CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public a NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from the stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves.   JOHN SHOEMAKER, Sole Agent for Blair County.
